

TWENTY-FOURTH DATE.

THE EXQUEEN CERTAIN OF RESTORATION.

She Tells a Lady That Orders Will Be Received on Wednesday to Put Her on the Throne.

Last week Miss Pope, principal of the Kawaiahae Seminary, called on ex-Queen Liliuokalani at Washington place upon a matter of business connected with the support of about twenty native girls at the seminary, for whom Her Majesty had stood sponsor.

Miss Pope found the late sovereign in excellent health and spirits.

"I should like to have this question postponed," said she, "until a few days have gone by. As you know, we are having a little skirmish in our politics, but it cannot last long. I have positive assurances that my throne will be restored to me soon after the arrival of next Wednesday's steamer. The orders to the Admiral will then come. You may be sure that when this result is reached, I will at once communicate with you about the girls."

Miss Pope spoke in a very appreciative way to her friends of the ex-Queen's courtesy and kindness to her and said that the sincerity with which she spoke of restoration was genuine and unmistakable.

It is not known where Liliuokalani gets her information, but the source is presumed to be Don Celso Cesar Moreno, who lives at Washington and has constituted himself Adviser and Correspondent-in-Ordinary to the Monarchist leader and cause. Moreno has been filling the Royalists with tales of what this, that and the other Washington publicist has told him, and all of these yarns have been swallowed without chewing. It was he who gave the ex-Queen positive assurances that she would be restored last June, and led her to tell a native caller from Maui that the event was bound to come at that time.

It is the peculiar notion of the ex-Queen that not only will the American Democracy put her on the throne again, but that United States' forces will sustain her there and permit her Government to punish by imprisonment and execution those who have been leaders in the revolutionary cause.

The pretender's subsidized organ, the Holomua, comes out with these amusing prognostications:

"The day will come when the insults, the outrages, the offences committed against Liliuokalani will be amply rewarded, and the punishment will fall on the heads of the adventurers who came here and revolted in the belief that they were safe from the hands of justice as administered by an indignant nation."

"But aside from these unpleasant facts which it is our duty to recall, although much against our inclination on an occasion like this, which should bring happiness to all, we desire to place before Her Majesty, our beloved Queen, our gratitude to God that she is still spared to be in our midst in life and health, and our fervent and loyal hope that Divine Providence will not only ensure her many more returns of the auspicious occasion, but will direct that the next one will take place under happier auspices than the present."

Moiwahine
Liliuokalani,
Long may she reign
In happiness and peace."

SATURDAY'S RACING.

Exorbitant Charges and Bad Management Combine to Make a Failure.

The races on Saturday, for many reasons, were not so successful as should have been the case. This was partly due to the inexperience and bad management of those who had the meeting in charge, partly to the exorbitant charges made for admission to the grand stand, quarter stretch, etc., and principally to the fact that it being both a royalist and family gathering, the bulk of the annexation party stayed away and put in the afternoon elsewhere. The grand stand, which consisted of bare and very dirty boards, was poorly patronized, and deservedly so; the track was in about as bad a condition as a race course could well be, and the clouds of dust that were raised from it during the racing were greeted with loud and frequent imprecations from the men, while words would not express the feelings of the ladies at the havoc wrought to their beautiful costumes by the penetrating dirt. All of these things must be remedied if the Hawaiian Jockey Club ever expects to hold a successful meeting.

As to the racing, there is a general howl about inexperienced judges and incompetent starters, and the usual kicks from those who lost money by backing the wrong horses. The first race, a half-mile dash, was won by Amorino in 52 seconds, that horse getting away with the lead on the second attempt and maintaining it to the end of the race.

For the Honolulu purse only two horses faced the post—Fred Mac, owned by C. W. Macfarlane, and Waikapu Maid, by W. H. Cornwell. The first heat was taken by Fred Mac in 3:04, and the second and final one in 2:47, by the same horse.

The third event was a match race, one mile dash, between W. H. Rickard's Duke Spencer and W. H. Cornwell's Lord Brock, for $500 a side. It was won by the latter in 1:49 3/5. Morton, the jockey of Duke Spencer, however, was suffering from a carbuncle on the right hand and came in to the post in a fainting condition. Had this not been the case the result might have been different.

The fourth race was an easy victory for Lot Slocum in three straight heats; time—2:38, 2:34 1/5 and 2:30 2/5.

The fifth race, for the Kalakaua cup and $75 added, was won by Billy C. in 1:53 3/5, after a miserable start. The cup thus becomes the property of W. H. Cornwell, he having won it once before, in 1887.

In the Kapolei Park race the first heat was taken by Fred Mac in 2:51 3/5, and the second by Aupuni in 2:49. Owing to the darkness the last heat was postponed until this afternoon.

The seventh and last race, a three-quarter-mile dash, was won by Duke Spencer in 1:18 3/4.

A number of gambling games were started outside the course, but were promptly stopped by the police.

THE EWA MURDER CASE.

It is Being Investigated By the Marshal's Office.

Deputy Marshal Brown concluded his inquest on the death of the Japanese who was murdered at Ewa plantation on Friday night, and the jury brought in the following verdict:

An inquisition taken at Ewa Mill, Ewa, Island of Oahu, on the 2d day of September, 1893, before W. S. Wond, one of the coroners of said Island, upon the body of Okimoto Rinjiro, there lying dead, by the oaths of the jurors whose names are hereunto subscribed, who being sworn to enquire when, how and by what means the said Okimoto Rinjiro came to his death, upon their oaths do say: That the said Okimoto Rinjiro (Japanese) came to his death by a knife wound in the left breast, penetrating the heart, inflicted by the hands of one of a party of his countrymen, to us unknown, at Ewa plantation, Ewa, on the evening of September 1, 1893.

In testimony whereof the said coroner and the jurors of this inquest have hereunto set their hands, the day and year aforesaid.

W. S. WOND, Coroner.
J. T. DOWNEY, Esq.
E. LARSEN.
S. GLENN.
G. S. GARNETT.
A. B. LINDSAY.
H. J. DANFORD.

As a result of the inquest eight Japanese were arrested on Saturday, and yesterday eight more were placed behind the bars. A crowd of Japs, numbering one hundred and seventeen, came from Ewa yesterday, and surrendered themselves to the Marshal, claiming they had participated in the murder to the same extent as those under arrest. The Marshal, however, ordered them to leave, and they finally had to be driven away by the police.

The counsel of the Japanese officials and their attorney Paul Neumann finally prevailed upon them to leave for Ewa and return to their work. They left on the 5 p. m. train last night and are at work to-day.

Marshal Hitchcock is inclined to the belief that three men only were implicated as principals in the murder, and that they are among those in custody. Each of the sixteen men now in custody are being submitted to a rigid examination, which, it is hoped, will fasten the guilt upon the right parties. Owing to the necessary absence of Paul Neumann at the Kauai term of court, Charles Creighton will act for him in the interest of the Japanese. No charge has yet been made against any of the Japanese now under arrest, nor will there be until the evidence is in more definite shape than at present. The wounded man has been brought to the Police Station from Ewa and is on the fair road to recovery.

The Use of Search Lights.

It is certainly important to the cause of justice and humanity that all such enterprises as those of Captain Ferguson should be thoroughly scrutinized. Journalists who aid in doing this are rendering an eminent public service. Ferguson and his attorney Paul Neumann were conducting their operations with a secrecy which no doubt may be quite consistent with honorable and humane intentions. Yet in view of the past terrible abuses attending labor shipments, we are glad that the Star and the Advertiser have turned their search lights upon the whole business.—The Friend.

A Valuable Number.

The Friend has made its appearance for September. It contains the scholarly and devout editorials which have been, for fifty years, its leading characteristic. Besides these there are some special features of great merit, among them a review of the facts about Hawaiian commercial development during the past half century from the statistical pen of T. G. Thurman.

Not the Editor But a Friend.

P. A. Dias writes the Star that it was Canillo Pereira, editor of the Uniao Lusitana, and not himself, who left word at this office about the past and present policy of that newspaper. He speaks of the Uniao Lusitana as its subscriber and well-wisher, but disclaims other connection with it.

Custom House Appointments.

The Collector-General has appointed the following new customs officers: Captain of Night Watch, V. J. Fagundes; Inspectors, D. McCarrison, J. Monkhouse, L. P. Tenney, F. H. Cooper, A. C. Nunes, H. Myhre, D. Lyons, J. Luahiwa; Boat Boy, E. Devauchelle.

THE CLUB TAKES ACTION.

THE MATTER OF REMOVALS BROUGHT UP.

The Government Asked to Put Royalist Partisans Out—Its Diplomatic Reply.

On the 31st day of August a meeting of the Executive committee of the Annexation Club was held to discuss the subject of the removal of Royalist office-holders. Eighteen members of the committee were present, and after a general debate the following resolutions were passed by a unanimous vote and the following letters authorized:

HEADQUARTERS ANNEXATION CLUB,
HONOLULU, H. I. Sept. 1, 1893.
TO HON. S. B. DOLE, President, and the Executive Councils of the Provisional Government.

GENTLEMEN—The following resolution I am instructed to write you was passed by the Executive Committee of the Annexation Club at a meeting held last evening, Aug. 31.

Whereas, the presence of avowed partisans of the late monarchy in office under the Provisional Government is obnoxious to the loyal citizens of the Hawaiian Islands and a danger to the welfare of the country and to the cause of annexation; therefore be it

Resolved, that we, the Executive Committee of the Annexation Club respectfully appeal to the President and Executive Council to remove such Royalist incumbents as rapidly as the welfare of the public service will permit and fill the vacancies thus made with competent men who are loyal to the object for the attainment of which the Provisional Government was founded.

Trusting that you will give the matter your consideration,

I have the honor to be
Your Obedient Servant,
J. W. JONES,
Sec. Annex. Club.

REPLY OF THE EXECUTIVE.

DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS,
HONOLULU, September 1, 1893.

SIR—I am in receipt of your communication addressed to the Hon. S. B. Dole, President of the Executive Council of the Provisional Government, appealing to the Executive to remove from office avowed partisans of the late monarchy as rapidly as the welfare of the public service will permit.

The Executive fully agree that avowed partisans of the late monarchy should not remain in office. All employees of the Government have taken the oath to support the Provisional Government. Unfaithfulness to this oath will be followed by removal and by such further action as the case warrants.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,
FRANCIS M. HATCH,
Chairman of the Executive Council.

It is reported that several removals and appointments will come very soon.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.

Dr. McGrew's Office Entered on Saturday Night.

Everybody in Honolulu knows Dr. John S. McGrew, and everyone in Honolulu knows that he has a small two-roomed office which he uses for professional and business purposes. The doctor also has a habit, which might be followed by many others with advantage to themselves and the good of the commonwealth, of paying his bills every Saturday. The butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker understand this and are generally on hand on Saturday afternoon with the bills contracted by the doctor's household during the preceding week. But last Saturday only two bills were presented during the day—one of $2 and one of $14. In the morning, in his usual methodical manner, the doctor had placed, in an upper drawer of his desk in the inner room of his office, the sum of $56 wherewith to pay off a certain number of bills which had accumulated during the week. Only the two above referred to were presented, however, and at 5 o'clock on Saturday evening the doctor took the remaining money out of the drawer and locked it up in the safe in his residence. That he was wise in doing so future events showed.

On Sunday morning the doctor went into his office about 8 o'clock and noticed that the top left hand drawer of his desk had been forced open during the night. The office itself is never closed at night and an electric light is kept burning, so the burglar had an easy time. The drawer was forced open by some iron instrument, probably a heavy screw driver, the brass lock being bent down on one side while the upper part of the desk was pried up, and a portion of the wood work torn away. There was nothing in the desk but some old bank books and papers which were not disturbed. The rest of the drawers in the desk, eight in number, were untouched, which would look as though the thief had an idea where the doctor kept his money. The desk is a valuable one, having been made in England and brought out here by the former English Minister, Mr. Sing, thirty years ago, and purchased from him by Dr. McGrew when he was relieved by the present minister.

This was a busy day with District Judge Robertson, owing to the unusual hilarity prevailing on Saturday evening last, due to the enormous consumption of poor gin by the native element. Two natives were reprimanded and discharged after being found guilty of keeping a slaughter house within one mile of the Honolulu Postoffice.

A large number of drunks paid fines ranging from $2 up and were discharged.

L. Jesus and J. Jesus, both arrested for being drunk, pleaded not guilty and after an investigation were discharged.

M. I. Indie, charged with breaking the peace, forfeited his bail.

G. P. Guilhaume pleaded guilty to the same offense and was fined $10 and costs.

J. Cummings, for fast driving over a bridge, was fined $5 and costs.

HILO TO HAVE A BELL.

Andrew Brown Will Present the Hilo Fire Department With One

Superintendent Andrew Brown, of the Honolulu Water Works, the present popular chairman of the Board of Fire Commissioners, has purchased the bell formerly donated to the Mechanic's Engineer Company No. 2, by George Lucas, an ex-chief of the Honolulu Fire Department, and which has so long occupied a position in the Bell Tower; and after having it cleaned and its fittings pointed will present it to the Hilo Fire Department. The bell will leave on the next steamer and will no doubt prove an acceptable present to the Hilo members of the Department.

3. March—"A Day in Vienna" (new) Schold
4. Waltz—"The Gondola" (new) Dellinger
5. Euphonium solo—"Then You'll Remember Me" (new) Prendiville
6. March—"My Goodbye" (new) Spawker
7. Waltz—"Tou Paris" (new) Waldrufel
8. Galop—"Brave Ahead" (new) Strauss

Gunn for Fire Commissioner.

The Councils met in special session this morning and named Captain Hugh Gunn for Fire Commissioner in place of James H. Boyd, resigned. Captain Gunn was backed for the place by the Annexation Club, and his appointment is commendable on all grounds.

The Woman's Board.

The Woman's Board of Missions will meet to-morrow, Tuesday, afternoon at half-past two, at the vestry of Central Union Church. Recent letters from Mrs. Arthur Smith of China will be read. All interested in mission work are invited to attend.

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

The Australia is due on Wednesday.

William Auld gave a luau at the Inland Asylum on Saturday afternoon.

W. R. Castle will assist the prosecution in the Ewa Japanese murder case.

The Supreme Court will meet on the 18th of this month.

The August term of the Circuit Court expired by limitation on Saturday.

Saturday's ball game resulted in a victory for the Unknown's by a score of 11 to 5.

The Friend for September is out with its usual quota of interesting matter.

The Fall term of the Kawaiahae Seminary commenced to-day with a large attendance of scholars.

A British flag was flying at half mast in the pole in L. J. Levy's yard on Saturday.

Sister Beatrice of St. Andrew's Priory has gone to Leihua Ranch to enjoy a vacation of several weeks.

A luau was held at the ex-queen's premises on the Waikiki beach on Saturday afternoon.

There was a heavy rain at the head of the Nuuanu Valley this morning about 4 o'clock.

A smaller plate-glass window is to be placed in the safe deposit building. The safe is expected on the Australia.

A revolver which was lost on the Waikiki road yesterday is advertised for.

Seventeen drunks were fined $2 each and costs in the Police Court this morning.

A boat rudder which was lost on the reef near Waikiki on Sunday is advertised for and should be returned to the bark Alden Besse.

An extra term of the Circuit Court for this district has been settled upon, but the date will not be fixed until Judge Whiting returns from Kauai.

Major George G. Potter was conspicuous at the races and on the Waikiki road on Saturday with his tandem team.

The new Masonic hall will be dedicated about October 15th. A hall will be given by the members in the evening to the ladies who so generously exerted themselves to furnish the hall.

A break in the water pipe at School and Liliha streets on Saturday night was the means of calling Superintendent Brown out of bed. It was repaired in about three hours.

The water in the lower reservoir has increased from five to seven feet since Friday last, but the island steamers and the Australia will cause a heavy demand on its resources during the next few days.

Superintendent Brown shut off the water from a number of Chinese on Friday who were irrigating out of hours. This morning they came up and promised never to do it again. It cost them $5 each to get the water turned on again.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM.

A BARK AND A SCHOONER OVERDUE.

The Steamers Pele and Kaala Discharging—Longshore Notes.

The schooner Alice Cooke, from Puget Sound, with a cargo of lumber consigned to Lewers & Cooke, is now thirty-five days out, and the bark Detroit, from Departure Bay, with 2225 tons of coal for Wilder & Co., has been out nearly thirty days. Although both vessels have slightly exceeded the usual time of passage, no anxiety regarding them is felt by the agents.

The Waialeale is discharging her cargo of 1800 bags of Lihe sugar into the bark Albert, and will sail to-morrow morning for Hanalei coast.

The passengers who sailed on the S. C. Allen Saturday were Miss Grau, Miss Van Anglen, Henry Jaeger, J. Jaeger and F. M. Henkensins.

The Iwalani will take passengers for her regular ports, and the James Mackee and Kaala will sail to-morrow on their usual routes.

The steamer Kaala is discharging her cargo of Makaweli sugar, consisting of 1800 bags, into the bark Alden Besse.

The Mokoli, Captain McGregor, sails this evening with freight and passengers for her usual ports.

The steamer Mikahala is due to arrive to-morrow afternoon from Maui and Hawaii.

The steamer Waialeale sails for Lahaina, Kukuhaele and Honokaa to-morrow.

The schooner Ka Hae Hawaii will leave the marine railway some day this week.

The Mokoli sailed this afternoon for Lunal and Molokai way ports.

The C. R. Bishop will leave on her regular run Tuesday.

The steamer Claudine sails to-morrow on her usual trip.

The yacht Helene is berthed at the Oceanic Co.'s wharf.

The bark Discovery has anchored in naval row.
